

Master of Arts in Theology: Theology and Arts Emphasis

The Master of Arts in Theology: Theology and Arts Emphasis is for students with an academic interest in culture, art, and theology, and for practicing artists who want a theological and biblical foundation for their work.

Students prepare to be theological interpreters of culture and/or artists able to bring art and culture into conversation with theology.

For more information on the Master of Arts in Theology and how to apply for the degree with this emphasis, click on the APPLY NOW button.

Theology and the Arts Emphasis (24 units)

Required:

- TC 581: Touchstone Course (4 units)
- TC 591: Capstone Course (4 units)
- TC 592A/B: Master's Thesis Project (4 units)

To qualify for a Theology and Arts emphasis, you must choose 3 additional courses from the following categories*:

- Theology and Culture
- Popular Culture
- Theology and Art

*For students pursuing the Spirituality and the Arts focus, SP classes will fill some of the spots. Please click here for details on the Spirituality and the Arts focus.