

Spirituality and the Arts Focus

The focus in Spirituality and the Arts under the Worship, Theology, and the Arts emphasis is designed for students interested the relationship between the arts and spiritual formation and practice.

This focus provides a unique opportunity to synthesize skills and understandings from the spheres of theology, spiritual formation, and creativity. Students who complete this degree learn how to appreciate the significance of the core relationship between the creative process and spiritual formation.

FOCUS OUTLINE

Required and met in Academic Core
Spiritual Traditions and Practices (SP 500)

Required Additional Courses
Touchstone Course (TC 581)
Capstone Course (TC 591)
Masters Thesis Project (TC 592 a/b)
Spiritual Disciplines (SP 508)
2 additional SP classes
2 additional TC/WS classes*

PRACTICUM

*May substitute a related SIS/SOP course upon approval of Academic Programs

Requirement of MATM and MDIV degrees only